OLD TESTAMENT READING

The Reading is taken from the Book of JOEL Chapter 2: Verses 21-27

Read By:.....Ms. Stephanie Varence.....7:00 a.m.

Read By:.....Mr. Evan Cartwright.....9:00 a.m.

Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the Lord has done great things! Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield. O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing-floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

THE EPISTLE

The Second Reading is taken From the Book of FIRST TIMOTHY Chapter 2: Verses 1-7

Read By:.....Mrs. Mavis Sands.....7:00 a.m.

Read By:.....Mrs. Larissa Cartwright.....9:00 a.m.

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to ST. MATTHEW Chapter 6: Verses 25-33

Read By:.....The Revd. Rondeno Rolle, Assistant Curate
‘Therefore, I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore, do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed, your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

WE THANK YOU, LORD, FOR LAND SO FAIR

By: Rev. Dr. Kari Marcelle

We thank You, Lord, for land so fair,
Flamingo wings and skies so rare.
The Lignum Vitae blooms so bright,
All symbols of Your endless might.

We thank You, Lord, for fruits so sweet,
For tamarind trees and pine's ripe treat.
For sea grapes by the ocean's side,
In these, Your bounty is supplied.

Here in our soil where blessings grow,
The fruits of grace in sunlight show.
Guava and dillies, ripe and sweet,
From tree to hand, our needs You meet.

We thank You, Lord, for waters wide,
Where crawfish, conch and fish abide.
The grouper deep, the snapper's gleam,
Each catch reflects Your wondrous scheme.

The pink sands and the turquoise seas,
Proclaim Your wonders with the breeze.
The coral, fish and seaweed too,
Call us to give our praise to You.

For all Your blessings, Lord, we sing,
With joyful hearts, our voices ring.
In every fruit and wave and tree,
We see Your grace, eternally.

Intercessions For Harvest Thanksgiving

Leader:

As we gather to celebrate harvest Thanksgiving, let us bring before God our prayers, remembering with grateful hearts the abundance of His creation and seeking His guidance in our stewardship of it. Let us pray.

We pray for the Church universal and for our local communities in the Diocese of the Bahamas & Turks & Caicos Islands. May we continue to serve as faithful stewards of God's blessings and proclaim His goodness in all we do. May our celebration of harvest remind us to share His love and bounty with those around us.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our Prayer.

Loving Creator, we thank You for the natural beauty of the Bahamas: the sparkling waters, fruitful land, and warm, nurturing climate. Help us to care for this island paradise and all creations with respect and responsibility, ensuring that future generations may also enjoy its blessings.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our prayer.

We give thanks for farmers, fishermen, and all those whose labor provide us with food and nourishment. Bless their work, protect them in their toils, and grant them fair and just conditions. May their efforts always remind us of the value of hard work and the dignity of providing for others.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our prayer.

Gracious God, we remember all who face hunger and poverty, both in our communities and across the world. May our harvest celebrations spur us to acts of generosity and justice. Inspire us to share our resources and support initiatives that provide food, clean water, and aid to those in need.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our prayer.

Lord, we pray for wisdom as we confront environmental challenges that threaten the land, sea and sky. Help us to adopt sustainable practices, to protect balance of our ecosystems, and to treasure the resources You have given us, acting as true guardians of Your creation.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our prayer.

We pray for the people of our nation, the Commonwealth of the Bahamas. Guide our leaders, that they may put in place policies that enhances our nations agriculture and fisheries industries, strengthen our bonds as a community, that we may support local farmers who work to feed us, and inspire us to work together for the common good. May we be unified in gratitude, peace and service.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our prayer.

We thank You, O Lord, for the many blessings we enjoy: the gift of family, the joy of fellowship, and the hope that comes from Your unfailing love. Fill our hearts with gratitude that moves beyond words and transforms into acts of love and kindness toward others.

Leader: Lord of the harvest

Response: Hear our prayer.

Leader:

Heavenly Father, we lift these prayers to You, confident in Your endless mercy and grace. Accept our thanksgiving for Your generous gifts and inspire us to be Your hands and feet in the world. We ask this in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TRINITY TEAM

Congratulations!

DYD's YOUTH CORNER

MULTIPLE CHOICE

HARVEST THANKSGIVING

Matthew 6:25-33

Instructions: Answer the multiple-choice questions.

1. What does Matthew 6:25 say about worrying about food and drink?

- It is important to constantly think about what to eat and drink
- Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear.
- Worrying about food and drink is essential for survival
- God does not care about what you eat or drink

2. According to Matthew 6:25, what is life more than?

- Money and possessions
- Success and achievements
- Fame and fortune
- Food and the body

3. What lesson can we learn from the birds of the air in Matthew 6:26?

- Not to worry about our lives, as God takes care of the birds and will also take care of us
- We should only rely on ourselves and not on God
- God doesn't care about the birds, so He won't care about us
- We should worry constantly about our lives

4. In Matthew 6:26, what does Jesus tell us to consider?

- Consider the flowers in the field
- Consider the fish in the sea
- Consider the birds of the air
- Consider the stars in the sky

5. What does Matthew 6:28-29 teach us about the lilies of the field?

- The lilies of the field are hardworking and productive
- The lilies of the field are not mentioned in Matthew 6:28-29
- The lilies of the field do not labor or spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
- The lilies of the field are not as beautiful as Solomon's clothes

6. According to Matthew 6:30, why should we not worry about clothing?

- Because clothing is not important
- Because worrying about clothing is a waste of time
- Because God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire.
- Because we can always buy new clothes
